

Lecture 1 on Chapter 13 – Dragon heart

This lecture is divided into three main parts:

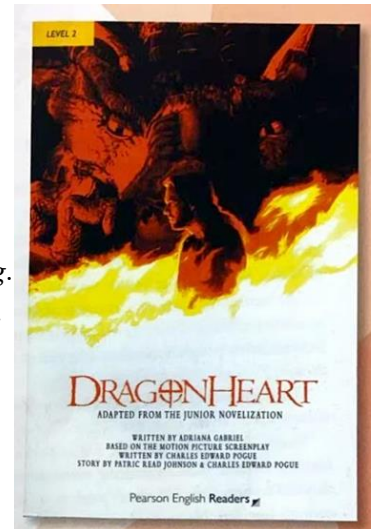

Reading(45min), Writing(25min) and Speaking(20min).

In this lecture, you will learn to:

- Understand the story of Dragonheart, including The Old Code and A New King.
- Understand key vocabulary from the story, such as dragon, crown, and injured.

After the lecture, you should be able to:

- Show basic comprehension of the text Dragonheart.
- Retell the story in your own words.

Reading part

In the reading part, we will read Chapter 13: Dragonheart.

You will learn to:

- Understand the main events and characters in the story.
- Understand important sentences and vocabulary from the text.

In detail:

- Read Chapter 13 Dragonheart, including The Old Code and A New King.
- Identify the main characters, such as Einon, Sir Bowen, the Queen, and the Dragon.
- Discuss what happens in the story and why the events happen.

Writing part

In this part, you will learn to:

- Use words and simple sentences to describe the story.
- Write a short retelling of Dragonheart using a clear structure.

In detail:

- Use simple words and sentences to describe the story.
- Practice writing a short retelling of Dragonheart.
- Learn to organize ideas using time words such as First, Then, After that, Finally.

Speaking part

In this part, you will learn to:

- Retell the story orally in simple English.
- Express the main events of the story in the correct order.

In detail:

- Retell the story orally in simple English.
- Answer questions about the story and the characters.
- Share simple opinions about the story (for example, whether a character is good or bad).