

Lecture 2 Review of Dragon heart & Reading and Writing Enhancement

This lecture is divided into three main parts:

Reviewing(15minutes), Writing(30minutes) and Reading(45minutes).

In this lecture, you will learn to:

- Fully understand the vocabulary and sentence structures in Dragonheart.
- Master basic methods of sentence analysis.
- Acquire fundamental English expressions and the ability to write a short story.

After the lecture, you should be able to:

- Master new vocabulary and sentence structures.
- Strengthen reading comprehension of English texts.
- Independently write a short story.

Reviewing part

In the reading part, we will review Chapter 13: Dragonheart, focus on:

- Key vocabulary and sentence structures from Dragonheart.
- The main storyline of Dragonheart.

Writing part

In this part, you will learn to:

- Advanced vocabulary usage and sentence collocations.
- The general writing process for an essay.

In detail:

- Includes vocabulary appropriate for Grade 7 and above, as well as selected university-level words.
- Includes dictation exercises and writing practice.
- Learn the structure and techniques of essay writing.

Reading part

In this part, you will learn to:

- Read English texts with increasing complexity.
- Apply sentence analysis methods during reading.

In detail:

- Read both basic and advanced English texts and complete reading comprehension tasks.
- Learn practical techniques and strategies for reading comprehension.